

SCUNTHORPE UNITED FOOTBALL CLUB

Job title:	Head of Medical Services
Reporting to:	First Team Manager
Remuneration:	Commensurate with experience
Hours of work:	Full time
Purpose:	Lead in the overall delivery of physiotherapy support services to the first team playing squad at Scunthorpe United Football Club. The successful candidate will be a committed and passionate member of our backroom staff

An exciting opportunity has become available at Scunthorpe United Football Club. We are currently looking to recruit a Head of Medical Services to lead our Medical department to develop, organise, co-ordinate and implement physiotherapy services for our First Team playing squad. Duties will include managing the day to day running of the Medical team, implementing injury risk mitigation strategies, application of evidence informed assessment, diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitation of injuries and liaising closely with the First Team Manager and Chief Executive to help maximise player availability for training and matches.

The role will be based at the clubs training ground and will include working all first team games, home and away, including overnight stays when necessary.

A detailed job description will be discussed with candidates invited to interview for the role.
